“They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. ...[and] the Lord added to their number.”

(Acts 2:42, 47)

THE BOOK OF ACTS

The book of Acts has a central role in the NT: It connects Jesus with the emerging Christian community, and the Gospels with the rest of the NT. It frames the proclamation of the Christian message in both Jewish and Gentile settings and underscores the key roles of Peter and Paul in the spread of the Good News throughout the Mediterranean. It is the story of a dynamic message with an outreach to all.

SETTING

Luke wrote at a time when the Good News about Jesus Christ was spreading from Jerusalem throughout the Mediterranean world. Luke was
