

Spiritual Temperaments Quiz

How do you relate to God? Take this quiz and find out which of the nine spiritual temperaments best describes you. Score the following statements on a scale of 1 to 5, with 1 being not true at all and 5 being very true. Record your results in the space provided below each section.

1. Are you a naturalist?

- _____ A. I feel closest to God when I'm surrounded by what He has made — the mountains, the forests or the ocean.
- _____ B. I feel cut off if I have to spend too much time indoors, just listening to speakers or singing songs. Nothing makes me feel closer to God than being outside.
- _____ C. I would rather worship God by spending an hour beside a small brook than by participating in a group service.
- _____ D. If I could escape to a garden to pray on a cold day, walk through a meadow on a warm day and take a trip by myself to the mountains on another day, I would be very happy.
- _____ E. A book called Nature's Sanctuaries: A Picture Book would be appealing to me.
- _____ F. Seeing God's beauty in nature is more moving to me than understanding new concepts, participating in a formal religious service or participating in social causes.

2. Are you a sensate?

- _____ A. I feel closest to God when I'm in a church that allows my senses to come alive — when I can see, smell, hear and almost taste His majesty.
- _____ B. I enjoy attending a "high church" service with a formal communion.
- _____ C. I'd have a difficult time worshiping in a church building that is plain and lacks a sense of awe or majesty. Beauty is very important to me, and I have a difficult time worshiping through second-rate Christian art or music.
- _____ D. The words sensuous, colourful and aromatic are very appealing to me.
- _____ E. I'm naturally drawn to museums and concerts more than I'm inclined to take a walk in the woods, work in a soup kitchen or read a book by myself.
- _____ F. I would really enjoy drawing exercises or classical music playing in the background to improve my prayer life.

3. Are you a traditionalist?

- _____ A. I feel closest to God when I'm participating in a familiar form of worship that has memories dating back to my childhood. Rituals and traditions move me more than anything else.
- _____ B. I begin to feel closest to God when I lay something on the altar, sacrificing it for Him.
- _____ C. The words tradition and history are very appealing to me.
- _____ D. Participating in a formal liturgy or "prayer book" service, developing symbols that I can place in my car, home or office, and developing a Christian calendar for our family to follow are activities I would enjoy.
- _____ E. A book titled Symbolism and Liturgy in Personal Worship would be appealing to me.
- _____ F. I would really enjoy developing a personal rule (or ritual) of prayer.

4. Are you an activist?

- _____ A. I feel closest to God when I am cooperating with Him in standing up for His justice: writing letters to government officials and newspaper editors, picketing at a place of injustice, urging people to vote or becoming informed about current issues.
- _____ B. I get very frustrated if I see apathetic Christians who don't become active. I want to drop everything else I'm doing and help the church overcome its apathy.

- C. The terms courageous confrontation and social activism are very appealing to me.
- D. Activities such as confronting a social evil, attending a meeting of the local school board to challenge the new curriculum & volunteering on a political campaign are important to me.
- E. The book written by Franky Shaeffer, A Time for Anger (or a book like it), would be an important book for me to read.
- F. I would rather stand in the rain for an hour to confront an evil than sit in a room by myself for an hour and pray, take a walk through the woods or spend an hour reading a book.

5. Are you an ascetic?

- A. I feel closest to God when I am alone and there is nothing to distract me from focusing on His presence.
- B. I would describe my faith as more "internal" than "external."
- C. The words silence, solitude and discipline are very appealing to me.
- D. Taking an overnight retreat by myself at a monastery where I could spend large amounts of time alone in a small room, praying, studying God's Word and fasting for one or more days are all activities I would enjoy.
- E. I would enjoy reading the book A Place Apart: Monastic Prayer and Practice for Everyone.
- F. I would really enjoy spending time on a night watch, taking a short vow of silence or simplifying my life.

6. Are you a caregiver?

- A. I feel closest to God when I see Him in the needy, the poor, the sick and the imprisoned. I feel God's presence most strongly when I am sitting quietly by the bed of someone who is lonely or ill or when I am taking a meal to someone in need. You can count on me to offer a ride or to volunteer for helping activities.
- B. I grow weary of Christians who spend their time singing songs while a sick neighbour goes without a hot meal or a family in need doesn't get help fixing their car.
- C. The words service and compassion are very appealing to me.
- D. I sense God's power when I am counselling a friend who has lost a job, preparing meals for or fixing the car of a family in need, or spending a week at an orphanage in Mexico.
- E. A book titled 99 Ways to Help Your Neighbour would be very appealing to me.
- F. I would rather nurse someone to health or help someone repair someone's house than teach an adult Sunday school class, go on a prayer and fasting retreat or take a lonely walk in the woods.

7. Are you an enthusiast?

- A. I feel closest to God when my heart is sent soaring and I feel like I want to burst, worship God all day long and shout out His name. Celebrating God and His love is my favourite form of worship.
- B. God is an exciting God, and we should be excited about worshipping Him. I don't understand how some Christians can say they love God, and then act like they're going to a funeral whenever they walk into church.
- C. The words celebration and joy are very appealing to me.
- D. I would enjoy a workshop on learning to worship through dance or a worship session with contemporary music. I expect that God is going to move in some unexpected ways.
- E. I would enjoy reading the book The Mystery and Excitement of Walking With God.
- F. I spend more money on music and worship downloads than on books.

8. Are you a contemplative?

- A. I feel closest to God when my emotions are awakened, when God quietly touches my heart, tells me that He loves me and makes me feel like I'm His closest friend. I would rather be alone with God contemplating His love than participating in a formal liturgy or being distracted by a walk outside.
- B. The most difficult times in my faith are when I can't feel God's presence within me.
- C. The words lover, intimacy and heart are very appealing to me.
- D. I really enjoy having 30 minutes of uninterrupted time each day to sit in quiet prayer and "hold hands" with God, writing love letters to Him and enjoying His presence.
- E. I would enjoy reading The Transforming Friendship.
- F. When I think of God, I think of love, friendship and adoration more than anything.

Total of all your answers _____

9. Are you an intellectual?

- A. I feel closer to God when I learn something new about Him that I didn't understand before. My mind needs to be stimulated. It's very important to me that I know exactly what I believe.
- B. I get frustrated when the church focuses too much on feelings and spiritual experience. Of far more importance is the need to understand the Christian faith & to have proper doctrine.
- C. The words concepts and truth are very appealing to me.
- D. I feel close to God when I participate in several hours of uninterrupted study time — reading God's Word or good Christian books and then perhaps having an opportunity to teach or participate in a discussion with a small group.
- E. A book on church dogmatics would be appealing to me.
- F. I spend more money on books than music.
