Welcome to Worship

Church is not a building – it is the family of God’s people and we are delighted that you are able to join us today. Our thanks to Ian Baillie for stepping in to lead our service while Scott is not 100%.

Singing in worship

We are delighted that, following changes in Scottish Government guidelines, we are now able to sing as a congregation in worship. Masks must still be worn while singing. We hope that from next Sunday the organ and praise band will once again be a live part of morning worship.

Keep in touch and informed

As well as our church website www.brightonschurch.org.uk we are on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and YouTube. You can download newsheets and prayer points from the website as well as revisiting previous sermon videos and texts.

Thy Kingdom Come Prayer – 30th May to 12th June

Christians in every part of the UK have been joining together in prayer at 7pm on a Sunday and we would like to encourage you to keep setting this time aside. Prayer points suggested by the Community Outreach Team are on the website prayer page.

Booking for services

We have reinstated the system that we used previously such that you can book a place by leaving a message on the church office phone (01324 713855) or emailing info@brightonschurch.org.uk Please request your place at least three days before services. Now that the balcony is available, we hope to allow at least 60 of a congregation, possibly more.

Your Prayers

Please continue to pray for the family of Lynn Donald, especially with the sudden death of her husband Bill on Thursday. Lynn’s funeral will be at Falkirk Crematorium tomorrow, Monday 7th June at 10.00. Live streaming details can be obtained by emailing info@brightonschurch.org.uk Please remember son Billy, daughter in law Sueli and granddaughter Gabriella at this very sad time.

As more of us return to worship in the sanctuary on a Sunday morning we've moved the time for the Zoom cuppa a little earlier so that people can take part and still have plenty of time to travel to church. It is now from 9.45 until 10.30 am.
