

Message

'When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple courts he found people selling cattle, sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money.'

(John 2:13-14)

'So he made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. To those who sold doves he said, 'Get these out of here! Stop turning my Father's house into a market!' (John 2:15-16)

'See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and his glory appears over you. Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.' (Isaiah 60:2-3)

'Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God – this is your true and proper worship.' (Romans 12:1)

'The Jews then responded to him, 'What sign can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?''

(John 2:18)

'Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come,' says the Lord Almighty...he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver.'
(Malachi 3:1-3)

'Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days.' They replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?'" (John 2:19-20)

'But the temple he had spoken of was his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said. Then they believed the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.' (John 2:21-22)

'Now while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival, many people saw the signs he was performing and believed in his name. But Jesus would not entrust himself to them, for he knew all people...he knew what was in each person.' (John 2:23-25)

His disciples remembered that it is written: 'Zeal for your house will consume me.'
(John 2:17)

'I did not see a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple...The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him.'
(Revelation 21:22; 22:3)
